COURSE DESCRIPTION

ANS 3934 offers an introduction to careers in the livestock industry and a discussion of career exploration, career preparation, and the procedure of job placement

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To help students understand the broad scope of disciplines and opportunities that exist in the beef, equine, dairy and pork industries.
- To help students become marketable candidates for positions of their choice in the production, marketing and processing of beef cattle, swine and dairy.
- To help students become marketable candidates for positions in the production, training, and utilization of horses.
- To help students become marketable candidates for positions in the livestock support and allied industries (feed, health, sales, promotion, etc.).
- To help students develop a plan for career development and evaluate their current readiness for positions in the industry.

COURSE FORMAT

Support materials will be presented by instructors and discussed with students during the first few weeks. Guest speakers from various careers will participate in panel discussions. Many speakers will be UF alumni.

4. What the internship should do to make you a better candidate for positions that meet your career goal.

5. How will you “network” to find internship opportunities?

6. What are the steps that you will complete to establish your internship?

7. What is the best semester for your internship? Why?

Turn in a ~1 page document to Ms. Pulliam

Resume'

1. Develop resume for a position of your choice.

2. Use materials presented by Ms. Carr to ensure your resume is appropriate for an internship or a post-graduate position in the industry.

3. Print a copy of your resume' and turn it in to Ms. Pulliam.

Services for Students with Disabilities

The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation 0001 Reid Hall, 352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/

Software Use

All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Academic Honesty

As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity." You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see:

Campus Helping Resources

Students experiencing crises or personal problems that interfere with their general well-being are encouraged to utilize the university's counseling resources. Both the Counseling Center and Student Mental Health Services provide confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students. Resources are available on campus for students having personal problems or lacking clear career or academic goals, which interfere with their academic performance. The Counseling Center is located at 301 Peabody Hall (next to Criser Hall). Student Mental Health Services is located on the second floor of the Student Health Care Center in the Infirmary.
