

Brett Brandner

5390 State Highway 11

De Leon Springs, FL 32130

bcbrandn@volusia.k12.fl.us

(386)216 2549

Is willing to judge; Market and breeding cattle, swine, sheep, meat goats

Occupation: Agriculture Teacher/FFA Advisor, Deland High School

Personal Information;

Brett grew up in Allentown, Pa, 80 northwest of Philadelphia on a horse and hay farm. He competed at rodeos on the professional level for several years in the northeast and Midwest. In college, Brett became involved with the livestock judging team at Murray State University under the guidance of Dr Jim Davis. He was very involved in the swine and beef production units at Murray.

Judging Experience;

-Murray State University Livestock Judging Team 1991-1992

-Murray State University Horse Judging Team 1990

-Have coached several successful FFA and 4H Livestock Judging Teams for the past 19 years as a teacher. They include 2 Florida State Champion FFA Teams and 1 State Champion 4H Team. In 2012, the DeLand FFA Livestock Judging Team finished 6th in the National Contest.

-Judged Several Fairs and Jackpot Shows in Florida.

Education;

Bachelor of Science in Animal Science, 1992

Murray State University

Masters of Science in Animal Science, 1994

Murray State University