

Ed Jennings is willing to judge market, breeding, and showmanship classes for cattle as well as market classes for swine. He is a 1983 graduate of the University of Florida and member of the 1983 Livestock Judging Team. He has served as a livestock agent with the Florida Cooperative Extension Service for 25 years and has worked with many youth livestock programs at both the county and state level. Contact information is (352) 521-4288 or email at edjennin@ufl.edu.