

Cindy Sanders

20025 NW 135th Ave.

Micanopy, FL 32667

352-466-4696

Sanders1@ufl.edu

Willing to Judge: Market and breeding classes for cattle and swine.

Occupation: UF/IFAS Alachua County Extension Director, Livestock Agent

Personal Information:

I grew up on a cow/calf operation. I am a six generation Floridian with a background of citrus and cattle here in Florida. I showed in 4-H & FFA during my youth years in Florida, showing steers, heifers, and pigs. I also showed professionally all over the country when managing a pure bred Angus operation in the 1990's. My family & I currently have a purebred Angus operation in Micanopy, FL.

Judging Experience:

- University of Florida Livestock Judging Team, 1989
 - High Individual Southeastern Contest
 - High Individual Reasons Southeastern Contest
 - 3rd High Individual Beef, Jackson Miss.
 - 5th High Individual Beef, North American International
- University of Florida Livestock Judging Assistant Coach, 1990
- I have judged in Florida, Georgia, and Alabama, shows have included both youth and open.

Education:

Master of Science, Agricultural Extension, 2005

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL

Bachelor of Science, Animal Science and Agricultural Education, 1991

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL

Associate's Degree, 1989

Santa Fe Community College, Gainesville, FL