

2011 Corn Silage and Forage Field Day
June 16, 2011
University of Georgia - Tifton Campus
Tifton, GA

- 7:30 Registration
- 8:00 Welcome and Introductions
Dr. Joe West, Assistant Dean, College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences, University of Georgia – Tifton Campus
- 8:15 Tour variety test plots
- 9:40-10:20 Educational Stops
- A. Agronomic Issues:
Improving nitrogen fertilizer use – Dr. Glen Harris, UGA, Tifton
Update on weed control in corn and forage sorghum – Dr. Eric Prostko, UGA, Tifton
 - B. Forage Preservation:
Inoculants for preserving corn and bermudagrass forages – Dr. Adebola Adesogan, UFL, Gainesville
Reducing DM and nutrient loss in high moisture forage – Mr. Oscar Queiroz, UFL, Gainesville
 - C. Forage Utilization:
Use of byproduct to supplement forages for beef cattle - Dr. Lawton Stewart, UGA, Athens
Use of byproducts to reduce feed cost in dairy rations – Dr. Charlie Staples, UFL, Gainesville
- 10:20 Break
- 10:40-11:30 Education Stops (repeat sessions)
- 11:30 Visit exhibitors
- 12:15 Lunch
- 1:00 Field Demonstrations at Dairy Research Center
- A. Reducing feeding losses of hay – Dr. Dennis Hancock, UGA, Athens
 - B. Processing baleage and hay for use in TMR, Dr. John Bernard, Tifton