

58th Florida Dairy Production Conference

October 23rd, 2024, Straughn IFAS Extension Professional Development Center, Gainesville, FL

Dear Prospective Sponsor,

We welcome your interest in discussing the possibility of sponsoring the 58th “Florida Dairy Production Conference”, which will be held in Gainesville on October 23rd. The conference will bring together dairy industry leaders to discuss key topics, including “Nutrition and management of young animals”, “Economic outlook and factors affecting economic performance in dairy farms”, and “Genomic Evaluation”.

Companies interested in sponsoring the conference can choose from four different levels:

Platinum level ($ 1,500): companies are recognized for its sponsorship in all promotional materials and throughout the meeting, select their table space at the meeting, and receive 4 courtesy registrations.

Gold level ($ 1,000): companies are recognized for its sponsorship in all promotional materials and throughout the meeting, select their table space at the meeting, and receive 3 courtesy registrations.

Silver level ($ 750): companies are recognized for its sponsorship in all promotional materials and throughout the meeting, are allocated table space at the meeting, and receive 2 courtesy registrations.

Bronze level ($ 500): companies are recognized for its sponsorship in all promotional materials and throughout the meeting, are allocated table space at the meeting, and receive 1 courtesy registration.

Promotional materials forward to us by October 3rd will be included in the packets provided to all attendees.

We are very appreciative that you are contemplating being part of this important effort to help improve the dairy industry from the ground up. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

Best regards,

Organizing committee of the 58th Florida Dairy Production Conference
