Due to COVID-19, spring student consultations will be handled via phone, email, Zoom, or Teams. If the University’s guidelines permit, face to face meetings will be welcomed with an appointment. You can expect a response from your instructor within 48 hours, excluding holidays and weekends.

Course Technology
In this course, we will be utilizing eLearning at elearning.ufl.edu to share content, pre-recorded lectures, assignments, and synchronous sessions. You will also be expected to monitor grades as well as course announcements for important updates and information in Canvas. Lecture outlines and supplements will also be available for you to download as needed.

Synchronous sessions will be held via Zoom (UF Zoom website; Zoom Guides); you can access Zoom links for each synchronous session on the module page or by clicking Zoom Conferences in the left-hand navigation in the course.

Technical Issues
If you require assistance resolving technical issues, please contact the UF Helpdesk by visiting the helpdesk website or calling 352-392-4357. Additionally, you should notify the instructors of technical issues as soon as they occur so they can decide to make accommodations for submitting late assignments.

Course Description
Role of aquaculture, beef cattle, dairy cattle, goats, horses, poultry, sheep and swine in serving humans. Introduction to nutrition, growth, reproduction, meats and genetics related to improving livestock production.

Course Objectives
1. Analyze the broad scope of disciplines and opportunities existing in the livestock industry and their contribution to humans.
2. Describe the basic principles of Animal Sciences.
3. Recognize the purpose, proper usage, and impact of management techniques used in the various livestock industries.
4. Develop an insight into the problems and status of livestock production.
5. Realize the affiliation that exists between livestock production and other agricultural enterprises.
6. Develop an appreciation of the various livestock industries.
Course Information
Although the lab is not a required course for non-Animal Sciences majors and may be taken in a separate semester from the lecture, it is strongly recommended you take ANS 3006L Introduction to Animal Sciences Laboratory in the same semester as the ANS 3006 Introduction to Animal Sciences lecture. Lecture and lab material are designed and presented in a way to maximize your learning experience. Grading for lecture and lab are independent of each other.

Schedule
Lecture: Recordings to be watched asynchronously via Canvas each week prior to the corresponding discussion period

Discussion: Meet once per week in a small group to discuss lecture topics, complete in-class application and professional development assignments, and seek guidance on out-of-class assignments

Team-Based Learning Assignments
Team-based learning uses a three-step approach to teach instructional modules:

1. Preparation: you will be required to complete module learning activities, primarily pre-recorded lectures and readings, prior to your weekly discussion period. Your preparation and understanding will be assessed using an individual readiness assurance test (IRAT) following each module. Each module IRAT is due by 8:00 AM on Monday each week and each IRAT is worth 10 points. No IRAT score will be dropped and IRATs cannot be turned in late.

2. In-Class Readiness Assurance Testing: you will be assigned to a small group where you will take a team readiness assurance test (TRAT) during your assigned in-class discussion period. The TRAT is the same test you took for your IRAT. As a team, you will receive immediate feedback on your answers. All members of your team will share the same TRAT score. Each TRAT will be submitted at the beginning of each in-class discussion period and each TRAT is worth 10 points. No TRAT score will be dropped and students must be present for the duration of the TRAT activity to receive their TRAT score. As such, it is imperative you are logged into Zoom for your synchronous in-class discussion period at the start of each class – tardiness and absences will have a negative impact on your overall grade.

3. In-Class Application and Professional Development Exercises: you will work individually and/or in small groups to complete exercises designed to help you apply and extend your knowledge of the module instruction you prepared for and were assessed on in the RATs. Additionally, you may be asked to give your opinions during class discussions on relevant subject matter using information gained from the course. The goal is to increase engagement, explore concepts, provide real-time monitoring of concepts, and develop positive professional habits. In most cases, scores will be based on participation rather than correctness. These assignments will be worth 10 points each. You will be allowed to drop your lowest two in-class application and professional development assignments.

The Team-based Learning Approach incentivizes learning the material beforehand, attending classes, and contributing to team assignments, while also holding you accountable for coming to class prepared and working with your peers as a team.

Class Attendance:
Daily attendance records will not be maintained for discussions. However, the materials for exams, out of class assignments, as well as in-class application and professional development assignments will be taken from the subject matter presented in the discussion periods.

Requirements for class attendance, make-up exams and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/.

Out-of-Class Assignments
Nine out-of-class assignments, which include knowledge base and career surveys, discussions, and a professional self-evaluation will be assigned. Each out-of-class assignment will be worth 15 points and by 11:59 PM on the following dates:

</table>

All out-of-class assignments will be posted in Canvas and will be submitted through Canvas. Out-of-class assignments may be submitted up to one week late with a 10% per day deduction.

Quests:
Rather than administering weekly quizzes or longer, less frequent tests, quests will be due every two weeks. Quests will cover the previous two modules. Each quest is worth a total of 50 points. A total of seven quests will be administered throughout the semester. Your lowest quest grade will be dropped for the semester.
Quest 1: Saturday, January 23, 2021  50 points
Quest 2: Saturday, February 6, 2021  50 points
Quest 3: Saturday, February 20, 2021  50 points
Quest 4: Saturday, March 6, 2021  50 points
Quest 5: Saturday, March 20, 2021  50 points
Quest 6: Saturday, April 3, 2021  50 points
Quest 7: Saturday, April 17, 2021  50 points

Note: All quests are to be taken at their scheduled times. Make-up quests will only be given for prior excused absences and absences consistent with the university’s make-up policies (https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/). When appropriate, arrangements need to be made prior to the quest day.

Reviews for the quests will be scheduled prior to the exam – students should monitor Canvas and in-class announcements for dates, times, and zoom links.

Grading System:
14 IRAT @ 10 points each  140 points
10 TRAT @ 10 points each  100 points
8 In-class Application and Professional Development Activities @ 10 points each  80 points
6 Quests @ 50 points each  300 points
9 Out-of-Class Assignments @ 15 points each  135 points
                               755 points

Final Grades
Final grades will be determined by calculating the percentage of points earned out of total points available. That percentage will correspond to a letter grade. No component will be given extra weight so you should be able to easily calculate your current grade and the number of points you need to get the final grade you desire. Letter grades will be assigned as follows:

≥90.0%  A   ≥77.0% - <80.0%   C+   ≥63.0% - <67.0%   D
≥87.0% - <90.0%  B+   ≥70.0% - <77.0%   C   <60.0%   E
≥80.0% - <87.0%  B   ≥67.0% - <70.0%   D+

Services for Students with Disabilities
The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation 0001 Reid Hall, 352-392-8565, https://disability.ufl.edu/
